The amendment under section 3 of Act no. 651 of 12 June 2013 has not been incorporated into this Consolidation Act since this amendment will come into force on 1 January 2014, cf. section 5 of Act no. 651 of 12 June 2013.

Part 1
Purposes and scope of the Act

1. The purposes of this Act are
   (i) to protect the rights and influence of citizens whose cases are being considered by the social authorities;
   (ii) to emphasise the duty of the municipal council to attend to municipal tasks in the social area;
   (iii) to emphasise that the social authorities shall arrange for the provision of early, comprehensive assistance;
   (iv) to prevent persons who are facing or risk being faced with difficulties in remaining in their jobs from needing financial support; and
   (v) to establish a structure and fundamental principles for the administration of social cases.

2.—(1) The Act provides rules governing the consideration and determination of cases by the municipality (municipal council) and central government authorities in the social area (the state administration and the National Social Appeals Board) in accordance with legislation.
   (2) Rules derogating from this Act may be laid down in other statutes.
   (3) The Minister for Social Affairs and Integration is authorised to designate the cases to which this Act will apply in whole or in part, in the employment area subject to negotiation with the Minister for Employment.

Part 2
The citizen

3.—(1) The municipal council shall deal with and consider matters of assistance as soon as possible with a view to determining whether assistance is warranted and, if so, the nature of such assistance.
   (2) In the individual policy areas, the municipal council shall stipulate the time limits within which a decision shall be made after an application is received. The time limits shall be published. If the said time limit cannot be complied with in a specific case, the claimant shall be given written notice of when a decision may be expected.

4. The citizen must be given the opportunity to attend the proceedings in which he/she is involved. The municipal council shall arrange the proceedings in such a way as to facilitate such attendance by the citizen.

5. The municipal council shall consider applications and enquiries for assistance, having regard to all possibilities available to render assistance under the social legislation, including counselling and guidance. In addition, the municipal council shall have regard to the possibility that assistance may be available from another authority or subject to other statutory provisions.

5a.—(1) The municipal council shall consider matters regarding assistance immediately, cf. section 5, when the municipality receives the notification from the enforcement court that a citizen is evicted from residential premises and the household includes children or young persons under the age of 18 or the municipality is in possession of information about the citizen that renders it probable that the citizen needs assistance. The same shall apply when the municipality receives notification from a housing organisation that a request for eviction from leased premises of a citizen due to non-performance of payment will be submitted to the enforcement court; cf. the rules on the landlord's notification to the municipality in the Act on the Rent of Social Dwellings.
   (2) If the municipal council assesses that no basis exists for providing assistance in connection with the eviction from the leased premises, the municipal council shall make a decision to this effect not later than 14 days after the enforcement court's notification that enforcement proceedings will be instituted or not later than 14 days after the housing organisation's notification that a request for eviction from leased premises of a citizen due to non-performance of payment will be submitted to the enforcement court, as the case may be.
   (3) Subject to the prior consent of the citizen, the municipal council may inform the enforcement court or the housing organisation of its decision.
   (4) The municipal council's decision under subsection (2) hereof may be brought before the National Social Appeals Board pursuant to the provisions of Part 10 hereof.
6. If a citizen requires long-term assistance, the municipal council shall at an early stage seek to structure the assistance subject to an overall assessment of the claimant's specific situation and long-term needs.

7.—(1) Within 8 weeks from the first application for continuous financial provision the municipal council shall conduct an assessment under section 6 above. But this shall not apply to persons taking part in a contact process pursuant to Part 7 of the Act on Active Employment Measures or to persons taking part in a follow-up process pursuant to Part 6 of the Act on Sickness Benefits.

(2) The claimant shall be given written notice of the assessment conducted by the municipal council under subsection (1) hereof.

Vocational measures

7a.—(1) No later than two weeks before a vocational measure ends, the municipal council shall assess the need for additional measures to help the citizen rejoin the labour market. The citizen, his/her general practitioner, the labour union, companies and other parties shall take part in making such assessment.

(2) If the municipal council decides to initiate additional measures, such measures shall be implemented immediately following the termination of the ongoing measure.

8. The Minister for Social Affairs and Integration is authorised to lay down rules governing the consideration of and follow-up on cases, including specific time limits applicable to certain types of cases.

(7) The original residential municipality, notwithstanding subsection (1) hereof, is under an obligation to provide assistance in accordance with the Act on Social Services when this municipality or any other public authority has helped provide accommodation for a person in

(10) Should two or more municipal authorities disagree about which municipality is a person's residential municipality, the municipality in which the person is or has most recently been registered with the National Registration Office shall act as residential municipality until it has been clarified which municipality is the proper residential municipality. The reimbursement shall be calculated as reimbursement pursuant to section 9c(1).

Such agreement is subject to the consent of the custodial parent and the young person over 15 years of age.

(7) Where a young person under 18 has a separate residential municipality within the meaning of the second or third sentence of subsection (4) hereof, this municipality, notwithstanding section 9(1), shall still be obliged to provide assistance in accordance with the Act on Social Services when the young person attains the age of 18 if the local authority or any other public authority, in immediate continuation of the placement, has helped the relevant person obtain accommodation in any accommodation facility comprised by section 9(7). Section 9(8), (9) and (11) hereof shall apply correspondingly.

The municipality in which the family member is currently staying shall grant the assistance.

Inter-municipal reimbursement

9c.—(1) The residential municipality shall be entitled to recover its share of the expenses for assistance pursuant to the Act on Social Services, the Act on an Active Social Policy, the Act on Active Employment Measures, the Act on Individual Housing Benefits, section 52(1) of the Act on Social Pensions and section 50(1) of the Act on the Highest, Intermediate, Increased Ordinary and Ordinary Anticipatory Pension, etc., from the former residential municipality pursuant to subsections (2)-(5) hereof. If a child or a young person who is placed in care or in respect of whom measures have been implemented under section 76(3) of the Act on Social Services, is allocated to a municipality pursuant to section 10 of the Integration Act, reimbursement shall be granted by this municipality under subsections (2)(vi) and (3) hereof.

(2) The residential municipality shall be entitled to reimbursement when the former municipality or any other public authority has helped provide accommodation for a person in

A residential municipality shall also be entitled to reimbursement under subsection (1) hereof where a child or a young person is placed in accommodation facilities, cf. section 66 of the Act on Social Services, as a result of the former residential municipality's decision to return the child or young person to his/her home, when the decision to return the child or young person was obviously unfounded.

(6) The residential municipality shall reimburse expenses for personal and practical assistance pursuant to section 83 of the Act on Social Services during a person's temporary stay in another municipality; cf. section 9b(1) hereof. The residential municipality shall also reimburse expenses for constant care allowance and subsidies for nursing requisites, etc., cf. sections 120 and 122 of the Act on Social Services, during a person's stay in another municipality; cf. section 9b(2) hereof. Reimbursement pursuant to subsections (2), (4) and (5) hereof shall postpone the right to reimbursement under the first sentence hereof.

(8) The expenses for which the residential municipality may receive coverage pursuant to subsections (2)-(6) above are the residential municipality’s actual expenses. The actual expenses comprise a proportionate share of common expenses and expenses for management and administration stemming from the operation of a facility. If a rate or a price requirement has been fixed pursuant to the Act on Social Services, the residential municipality shall be entitled to reimbursement corresponding to this rate or price requirement.

(9) The right to reimbursement pursuant to subsections (2), (4) and (5) above shall exist for as long as the citizen resides in the relevant residential accommodation or a corresponding accommodation facility. The obligation of a former residential municipality to reimburse expenses incurred for a citizen's stay in an institution pursuant to section 110 of the Act on Social Services shall exist until the citizen has taken residence in a new municipality.

(10) Outside the cases listed in subsections (2)-(5) above, municipalities may agree between themselves that a former residential municipality shall continue to pay the cost of assistance under the Acts listed in subsection (1) hereof. Any such agreement shall specify the duration thereof.

(11) Any claim against a former residential municipality under subsections (2)-(7) above shall be raised within 3 years from the provision of the assistance. (2) Without prior consent, the authority may require other public authorities and unemployment insurance funds to provide information about financial circumstances and holiday details in respect of the person claiming or receiving assistance and his/her spouse or cohabiting partner for use in considering an individual case or for general verification purposes. Similar information may be retrieved on other members of the household. Information may be shared and compared with data from the authority’s own, other authorities’ and the unemployment insurance funds’ IT systems when this is necessary for checking whether the conditions for granting assistance have been met, including for subsequent control of whether mistakes have been made or abuse has occurred when the assistance was granted. The information can be obtained even if the person that the information concerns is not a resident of the municipality requesting the information.

(3) The municipal council may demand without the consent of the citizen to receive necessary information about financial circumstances from banks and employers for random checks in cases falling within the Act on Social Pensions and the Act on the Highest, Intermediate, Increased Ordinary and Ordinary Anticipatory Pension, etc. for the purpose of checking the pensioner’s income and property. (2) Unless necessary for the consideration of a case pursuant to subsection (1)(i) hereof, the authority may also, without the consent of the person concerned, request private individuals with knowledge of the circumstances to give information necessary for the consideration of the case. In making such request, the authority shall inform the person asked that he/she is not obliged to answer.
(3) In cases pursuant to section 1(i), the authority may, without the consent of the person concerned, request information pursuant to section 11a(1) and obtain information pursuant to section 11c(2) above about persons who are parties to the case and about the co-habiting partner or spouse of the custodial parent.
