

Astrid Krag

Minister for Social Affairs and Senior Citizens

Parliamentary career

- Minister for Social Affairs and Senior Citizens since January 21, 2021
- Minister for Social Affairs and the Interior June 27, 2019 - January 21, 2021
- Minister for Health and Prevention October 3, 2011 - February 3, 2014
- Member of Parliament for the Social Democratic Party
- Former spokeswoman on tax politics, integration and immigration affairs, naturalization, senior citizens, and welfare politics

Education

- BA student in Political Science, University of Copenhagen, 2003-2007
- Upper Secondary School, Tørring County Gymnasium, 1998-2001

Jobs and affiliations

- Employed as a home carer, Sundparken, Amager, 2007
- Student assistant, Social and Health Care College in Copenhagen, 2003-2005
- Assistant educator, Frederiksberg Hospital Nursery, 2001-2002
- Shop assistant and cashier, Netto Supermarket, Tørring, 1999-2001
- Chairman of the Socialist People's Party's youth section, 2005-2007
- Chairman of the Student Council at Tørring Amtsgymnasium, 1999-2001

Personal

- Born November 17, 1982, in Vejle
- Married to Andreas Seebach, with whom she has three children